

2000, the MBTA will no longer purchase a permit to use Blue, Orange, and Red lines for the commuter rail system. This is a pilot program for the impact it will have on MBTA operations. It is expected that, within a few years, however, modifications will be implemented, if necessary, within

Enforcement

Cyclists failing to abide by the rules and regulations of station, train staff or MBTA Police, are subject to removal from the system.

on

